Samuel's life before the Civil War

Samuel T B Patrick- sometimes listed as Samuel T. Patrick, lived, loved, sired children and left this life in a tragic manner. (Note: In the Descendants Chart in my book, "The Search For Thomas Patrick", I incorrectly identified Samuel T B Patrick as "Samuel Dickson Patrick") ( It is this writer's guess that the "T" stood for Thomas and the "B" stood for Blair, but no evidence of those name were found.)

We encounter Samuel several times in the records of the day. The first time is in the Will of John Blair. In "Clause 7th – Samuel along with his sibling, Eliza, John Robert, Alexander and Joseph, was listed as legatees to receive thirty shares of bank stock, the negro woman Marie and her child, and 198 acres of land to be divided among them. This Will was written on Aug 8, 1848. John Blair died October 3, 1848.

I am not sure of why there was a delay of six years until Deeds were issued. I suspect it just took that long to settle the Estate of John Blair.

Below are thumbnails of two Deeds that followed the inheritance of the John Blair land.

In 1854, of the 198 Acres inherited, 96 acres were bought by John Robert from Samuel T, Alexander, and Eliza. He paid his siblings $1400 for the land.

At the same time, Alexander bought the other 102 acres from Eliza, Samuel T, and John Robert for $700.

Samuel's Civil War History

From Robert Mackintosh (Researcher):

“Dear Mr. Patrick,

Thank you for your letter and for the great news that you will be receiving copies of three Civil War letters written by Samuel Patrick! I also have some very exciting news on a major find regarding Samuel Patrick that I found today at the S. C. Archives. Even though Samuel Patrick is not listed on any of the internet indexes, old archives card indexes, and a published index at the S. C. Archives, I tried one more source - our old National Archives index of all Confederates from all states on microfilm, and I finally found him under the listing of S. T. B. Patrick - the same initials that he used on a number of his deeds in York County! Also, the information in his Compiled Service Record file is as good as it gets! He enlisted as a private on Dec. 28 (or 9th - two dates are given), 1861 in Co. K, 17th South Carolina Infantry at Camp Hampton which was in Columbia. He was wounded at 2nd Manassas in August, 1862, but survived until he died (as a Corporal) in Kingston, N. C., of small pox on Dec. 15, 1862. In the file is a sworn statement by his widow, Mary H. Patrick that this is true, also that they were married on August 2, 1855. By a great stroke of luck, I am very familiar with both the 17 S. C. Regiment and the 5th State Troops that John R. Patrick also served with. In 1976, I edited and published a book entitled "Dear Martha..." The Confederate War Letters of a South Carolina Soldier Alexander Faulkner Fewell. R. L. Bryan Company, Col. S. C. 207 pages. This is a collection of some 140 letters written both to and from my great-great grandfather from York County, Alexander F. Fewell ( I found most of the letters in the attic of his house in 1971), who served in the 17th Regiment, as well as in the 5th S. C. State Troops. In researching the letters, I did a lot of background work on both of those regiments as covered in part in the book. The book is now long out of print, but the Rock Hill library has a copy that I think that your son Joe may want to consult, and I think that it is very possible that the Greenwood library also has a copy. What ever the case, I will be xeroxing selected pages and sending it long with the next batch of copies which I hope to mail out by this Friday/or Saturday at the latest."

I had asked Sherwood Nichols Patrick, great-grandson to Samuel T B Patrick, if he had any family information that might be worthy of inclusion in a write-up of Samuel's life. He indicated he had three Civil War letters from Samuel to Mary H. Patrick, his wife. Upon searching, it was realized they could only find one of the letters. Sherwood sent a copy of it to me.

The letter beautifully expresses his love for his wife, the great burden of being a soldier at war, the hope of coming home for a visit, his deep faith in Jesus/God and the resulting hope that his faith brings to him, and finally, tragically it reveals the moment that Samuel saw death walk into the hospital tent in the form of a soldier infected with small pox. Samuel wrote the letter on November 18, 1862 and died December 15, 1862 of small pox.

The letter was originally handwritten and has since been typed.

From Robert Mackintosh on Feb. 17, 2009--

“It was a great pleasure to be able to speak with you yesterday, and to also receive a copy of one of the most touching Civil War letters that I have ever encountered - the letter written by your great-great uncle Samuel Patrick shortly before he died on December 15, 1862. I hope that the sketch of the History of the 17th Regiment, enclosed with the last package of copies, will be of help in describing the regiment's movements and battle actions in the period that he served - Dec. 1861 to Dec. 1862. My sincere thanks for sending and sharing with me a copy of this great letter!”

I should take (page 4) the smal px or measles it tis my duty to be reconciled to it & trust in him who is the Saviour of all mem especially those that believe in him. Dear wife this mite be the last letter that you will get from me for we know knot what is is the feature but god only knows what a wates us but I hope that if it tis gods will to spare our lives that we may meet a gain on this earth but if I should be caled of to my long home I hope it will be a happy change for me and it tis my dayly prayer that I may be prepared to die when ever it this gods will to call me of and I trust I shall be enabled to exercise fathe in the lord Jesus Christ who is able to save to the uttermost all thatwill come to god through him # and I hop that if god should call you to your long home I hop you may be ready too meet the call and when ever that time may come eatherto you or to me should it belong or short I hope we may be perfectly willing to be with Christ which is far better # and amd My dear wife let it be the prayer of every day that the loard may sanctifi ? our hearts and sauls by the purifying graces of tis hole Spirit that we may be made holy as he is holy and when we come to walk through the valy and shadow of death we may feare none ill for god is our rod and staff to comfort us still when you write a gain I want you to let me know if our Brigade is gon to Charleston S.C. or not some say that it has gon to charleston and some say it tis at Kingston NC I would like to know if I had a got of to dayas we loud to us I intended to went by home and stay 2 or 3 day if the brigade was neare you to to Kingston and ifthey were not gon we would not got the chance I supose as we would had to stoped before we that that far if they ware not gon to Charleston but I will have to stay here a wh.ile longer without they change the order they may let us as if in a day or too but dont expect they will # I would be trulyglad to see you and the little boys and sister also. I know there is no earthly blessing that I crave more no not one thenth part than I do to see you all a gain if at I hop if our lives is spared we will meat a gain on this earth but should n rrer meat a gain on this earth I hop we will meet again in heavin a bove whare the richous dwell for ever whare all is joy and piece for ever more .

The Tragedy of a Collapsed Dream

Samuel and Mary Patrick got married and began working to make their dreams come true. By 1860 they had bought 253 acres of land, had three sons and owned four slaves. You could say they were making progress and they were. What was unknown to them was that wave after wave of tragedy was headed their way.

First Wave -- April 12, 1861, Confederate soldiers fired on Fort Sumter, a key fort held by Federal soldiers. The Civil War had begun!

Second Wave -- December 16, 1862, Samuel dies from Small Pox.

Third Wave -- May 19, 1864, Mary Henretta Gwinn Patrick dies leaving four small boys, ages 2, 5, 7, and 8.

Forth Wave -- The South loses the war and surrenders on April 9, 1865. The economy has collapsed, Confederate money is worthless, valuable slaves have no monetary value, and Reconstruction brings on fear and uncertainty.

All of the above contributed to the total collapse of Samuel's family. The four young sons were now orphans in a world of chaos.

Samuel's Estate Papers

On January 9th, 1863, Mr. T T Gwinn (it is believed that T T was the father of Mary Henretta Gwinn) and Mary H. Patrick, petitioned to be Administrators of the Estate of Samuel T Patrick. Their status as such was given on January 26, 1863. All of STB Patrick's Probate papers were found in the S C Archives, Microfilm Roll C 2043.

Samuel died without a Will, so his estate was distributed as the intestate law dictated.

One of the first duties of the Administrators was to compile an Inventory of Goods and Chattels of Samuel. This was done on February 9th, 1863. See below.

Some things of interest to me were the two slaves at the top of the list - Boy Dan and Girl Amanda. Dan's value was listed as $1200 and Amanda's value was $1000. These two slaves represented the bulk of the value of Samuel's Estate. It is noted, however, that he had four listed in the 1860 Census.

About one year later, after the death of Mary H G Patrick, only Amanda was shown in her Inventory. I assume Boy Dan was sold during the year, but I could not find any record of the transaction. Evidently, two others were sold between 1860 and 2/9/1863.

Other Goods of interest and their value were, seven bales of cotton = $476, Filly Fanny = $200, One mule Nell = $150, Waring Apparl =$ 75, Lard = $48, One lot of brick = $3, and one violin = $3. Also, Twelve Scholarships on Erskine College = $47.50 and thirty Shares of Hamburg Bank = $1500.

Along with the Goods were Notes where Samuel had lent money to neighbors. At the top of the page, I will write out the Note in order to help people read the others.

One seal Note on Thompson Gwinn, dated January 8, 1859 for $650.

Credits Feb 24, 1860 - $100

March the 7th, 1861 - $183

(Next word is ) GOOD (That meant the Appraisers thought the Note would be paid)

Some of the others carry the notation of "Desperate", meaning person probably could not repay the money.

This last section above shows the results of an auction of the items in Samuel's "Goods and Chattels". On the left is the item or items, in the middle is the name of the person who bought the item, and on the right is the amount the person paid. Note 12 Erskine Scholarships valued at $47.50 and sold for $10. The sale was held on February 10, 1863. It was uncertain times. The war was not going well. Confederate money was used and well as Federal dollars. There was uncertainty about the value of confederate dollars. Also, there was uncertainty about the value of slaves. Two slaves were listed in inventory - Boy Dan and girl Amanda. Mary G Patrick bought Amanda for $1,000 and someone else bought boy Dan for $1250 - there is nothing said about the dollars being used to buy the items. Of course, all confederate dollars were worthless after the war.

In this return the Adm<sup>r</sup>, not charged with the purchases of Mary H Patrick as she was Co-Adm<sup>r</sup> & never paid her purchases. The property she purchased, except the negro, is in hands of her Adm<sup>r</sup> & her children - it is the same thing to her children who are now ~~beneficiaries~~ sole distributees of S<sup>r</sup> Patrick whether he debt be paid out of the property she bought as above stated or out of the sales of the real estate of said S<sup>r</sup> Patrick. And the Adm<sup>r</sup> of S<sup>r</sup> Patrick who is also Adm<sup>r</sup> of said Mary H. Patrick deems it most advisable to let her children keep as much of said property as possible and reserve ~~the~~ for him to receive the sale of the real estate to pay debts.

Above, the gist of the note, apparently to the judge of probate, by the Administrator, T T Gwinn, is that when the widow bought items at the sale, she did not pay for the purchases. Mary has since died and the Adm. is explaining that if she had paid for the items that money would have come back into her estate, which the boys are now beneficiaries of. Both of the estates - his and hers owes money and the Adm. expects to be able to pay those debts with the sale of real estate.

It is assumed the Adm. is asking for money from Mary's estate.

Your Petitioner respectfully sheweth that they are creditors of Daniel J. Patrick deceased, and that administration upon his estate was granted to J. J. Gurnin & Mary H. Patrick - That the real estate of the deceased was sold by the order of the Court of estate was insufficient for that purpose - That said realty was sold on 5th Nov 1866 at for the sum of payable on 5th Nov 1867 - That on the 20th Feb 1867 of said amount of $583.<sup>00</sup> in specie was paid by the purchaser to the Ordinary who being paid to the said J. J. Gurnin Adm<sup>r</sup> aforesaid, to be applied to the payment of the debts of said deceased & he executed Bond to the Ordinary upon the receipt thereof, binding him to duly administer said fund according to Law - That the said sum of $583.<sup>00</sup> was paid up to this date refused to distribute the same among the creditors of the estate, or in any way was bound to do & still refuses so to do - Your Petitioner therefore

No other papers on the Estate of Mary H Patrick were found. This writer believes that the two estates were merged into one after a time.

This tragic story does not end here. The four young men bore much of the brunt of the waves of tragedy crashing down on this family. We do know that at least some of them followed their uncle, aunt and cousins to White Oak. It is a shame we do not know any more than we do.

THE SONS OF SAMUEL T. B. PATRICK

The Chapter on Samuel will be completed by an effort to trace some of the history of Samuel's four sons and show the descendants.

Thomas Hillory Patrick was born in 1856, the oldest of the four boys. We know he spent time in White Oak as he is shown to have had his first child in 1900, who was born in White Oak, SC. He left an extensive line of descendants who mostly clustered around Fayetteville, NC, and Rock Hill, SC.

John B. Patrick was born 1857. We know he lived in Dallas, TX and died there in 1949, a bachelor.

Joseph Alexander Patrick was born 1859, died July 6, 1920 in Texas. He married a Sarah Minter and they left an extensive line which were scattered across the country. This was the line of Sherwood Patrick and Charles Minter (Pat) Patrick, Jr. whom we have come to know.

Samuel David Patrick was born 1862. We have our most information on this line of all of the sons. We know he spent time in White Oak and he died in Greenville, SC. Tommy Patrick found an obituary on him in The Greenville News on December 2, 1924. (Caption) "Well Known Man Passes in City --- (Header) Samuel D. Patrick Dies at City Hospital After Brief Illness"--- (Body)"Samuel David Patrick, well known man of this city, though more recently a resident of Dacusville township, of Pickens County, died at the City hospital after two years of failing health. Mr. Patrick removed to this city about twelve years ago from Toccoa, GA. and he was well known as a commercial traveler, throughout this section and the state at large. Mr. Patrick was deeply interested in religious work, and during his residence here had been an elder in the Second Presbyterian Church and for some time had been the teacher of the Men's Bible class of the Sunday School.

Mrs. Patrick survives him, together with the following sons - Rev. Paul D. (Dickson) Patrick of Effingham, SC, R. (Robert) Reid Patrick and (Beattie) Craig Patrick of Dacusville township in Pickens county. One brother, John B. Patrick of Dallas, TX also survives. -----"

With the information on Paul Dickson Patrick being in Effingham, SC, I called a friend, Henry Swink, of that town. His mother knew Paul as the preacher of the Effingham ARP church. She knew he had moved to Kings Mountain, NC.

A letter of inquiry in 2003 to an ARP Presbyterian Church in Kings Mountain produced a letter in return - "Your letter was forwarded to me by the the minister at Good Hope Pres. church. Dr. Paul D. Patrick was minister at First Pres. Church in Kings Mountain from 1937 until 1958. His wife, Blanch was a delightful "preacher's wife". They went to Columbia Seminary where he was in the Development Dept. until retirement. He died in 1966. Children: Paul D. Patrick, Jr.- Charleston, Henry Lawrence Patrick - Kings Mountain, NC, Betty Patrick Merritt - Roanoke, VA".

The letter gave me the name - Mary Helen Hambright Patrick, Henry Lawrence's widow. I contacted her. She was very interested to find a Patrick connection with the past. She furnished the following information on her family in Kings Mountain, NC. Henry Lawrence Patrick died August 20, 1997 at the age of 75. He was survived by one daughter, Barbara Patrick of Myrtle Beach, Henry Lawrence (Larry) Patrick, Jr. of Kings Mountain, and Gilbert Hambright Patrick also of Kings Mountain.

Lawrence Patrick established Patrick Yarns of Kings Mountain, a developer of specialty yarns. His sons now operate the company.
