

Murrells Inlet S.C.

Aug the 14. 1940

Dear Mrs Fairay

I received your letter We are glad you reached home safe every one on the Inlet left at about five ^{o'clock} Sunday Afternoon, the wind shifted about 7 and the tide began to go down every one was glad.
No special damage was done but reports says if the wind had not moved to the south loss of property would have been Nearby I shall be very glad to show you Mr McFowen's horse on Sunday and shall expect you down. Some people was here to look at the horse from Thurston yesterday they liked it very much. And I am sure you will and when you see it you will know the price is very reasonable for what they have to offer, I hope to see you Sunday

I am friend
