Greenville, S.C.

Dear Sir:

As requested in your letters of recent dates, I am enclosing some family history data, eight sheets, which you may keep. My line as we have it at this time is about as follows:

1-JOHN MILAM, Sr., and his wife Judith, lived in Halifax County, Virginia. He acquired land in that county in 1764, he was living in 1788. It has been thought that he came to Halifax County from Louisa County, but we have information that points to Culpeper County as his former home.

2-Bartlett Milam, Sr., (son of John and Judith Milam, above) acquired land in Halifax County, Virginia, in 1775. He sold his lands in Halifax County, Virginia, in 1796, and he and his wife Elizabeth, with their children, moved to Laurens County, South Carolina, where he died September 11, 1822; his wife, Elizabeth Milam, died on July 18th, 1823.

3-William Milam, son of Bartlett and Elizabeth Milam, was born in Halifax County, Virginia, December 25th, 1777; died in Laurens County, South Carolina, February 5th, 1844; married Mary Pasley, daughter of Robert and Sarah Pasley; she was born June 15, 1786; died February 15, 1855.

4-Madison Milam, son of William and Mary (Pasley) Milam, born February 4th, 1812; died February 4, 1890; married October 11, 1836, as second wife, Dorothy Ann Cothran of Abbeville Co., S.C.; she born March 27, 1818; died May 26, 1854.

5-James Cothran Milam, son of Madison and Dorothy Ann (Cothran) Milam, above, born March 17, 1838; died Dece,ber 10, 1913, at Cartersville, Ga.; married (i) Feb. 12, 1861, at Abbeville, S.C., Lydia Pauline Willson, born July 10, 1839; died January 8, 1884.

6-Herbert Marshall Milam, son of James Cothran Milam and Lydia Pauline (Wilson)Milam, born in Bartow Co., Ga., Jan. 24, 1862. I came to Atlanta, Ga., January 1,1885.

My information regarding the children of Bartlett, SR., and his wife Elizabeth, is very meagre and some parts of it conflicting. So I ask you to please send me what you can about the Children of Bartlett Milam, SR., and their wives and children.

Sincerely,

Herbert M. Milam,
31 Third St. N.E.,

Page 117-"Before the Civil War there was no sale for fruit of any kind, and improved fruit trees were unknown. A few apple trees were grafted by the farmers themselves, such as the Milum Apple. ————Today thousands of barrels are exported. The leading varieties are, Milum, Winesaps, Bonams, Yorks, Ben Davis, Pippins, and Black Twigs."

Page 153-"The Milum apple, a native of Madison County, and very highly prized by the citizens of the county, had its origin near Milum's Gap (sometimes called Fisher's Gap). It originated from a seedling that came up in the yard of one Joseph Milum. The apple proved to be so good that people from far and near came to graft trees from this one. The apples were named for the man who owned the seedling, Joseph Milum, and afterwards the gap in the Blue Ridge near his home was also named for him."
