CHAP. IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet, in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Mrs. Brewton was a woman of a kind and generous nature, and was loved by a host of friends who mourn her death.

The funeral services will be conducted this morning at the home of the deceased, 543 South Church St., by Dr. E. S. Alderman, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will follow at Oakwood cemetery. The following will act as pall bearers: M. O. Gentry, L. C. Dunbar, E. C. Wrightson, Dr. J. B. Stepp, O. T. Gallman, J. H. Hill, W. W. Littlejohn, and H. L. Bomar.

DEATH OF MISS BREWTON.

Died at the Home of Dr. W. G. Sexton Last Night.

Miss Laura Brewton died last night at the residence of her brother-in-law, Dr. W. G. Sexton, in the city, after an illness of five weeks. She was 26 years of age and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Brewton, of Switzer.

The deceased young lady was a zealous member of the Baptist church and a quiet, unobtrusive Christian of exalted character. For a number of years past she had lived with her sister, Mrs. W. G. Sexton. The news of her death will be received with profound regret by her many friends in the city and the county.

DEATHS.

A. C. DANIEL DEAD.

Andrews Chalmers Daniel, aged 63 years, died at his residence, 131 Seay street, yesterday evening after a three weeks' illness. He is survived by his wife and four children, R. E. Daniel, A. C. Daniel, Jr., and Mrs. J. L. Foster, of Roebuck, and Mrs. J. Z. Liverett, of Piedmont; one sister, Mrs. David Brewton; five brothers, R. J. Daniel, Mooresboro, N. C., John M. Daniel, of Gaffney, R. T. Daniel, of Spartanburg, E. C. Daniel, of Roebuck, and Dr. S. S. Daniel, of Spartanburg. The funeral services will be held from the late residence tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. C. Herbert, pastor of Central Methodist church, assisted by Dr. E. G. Alderman, pastor of the First Baptist church. The interment will be in Nazareth churchyard.

The late Mr. Daniel was a citizen of Spartanburg for the past 20 years and he was a man of spotless integrity and honesty.

Miss Laura Brewton, daughter of David A. Brewton, died Thursday night last at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. G. Sexton, of this city. She was 26 years old and highly esteemed by those who knew her. She was buried at Switzer Saturday.

The remains of D. A. Brewton, who died at Dr. W. G. Sexton's yesterday afternoon, were carried to Switzer for interment today.

D. A. Brewton Died Today.

D. A. Brewton of Switzer died at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. W. G. Sexton, on South Church street at about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Brewton had been ill for about three weeks and for several days his death has been expected. The deceased was in his seventieth year and his long life was characterized by fidelity and uprightiness. He is survived by three children, one son, Jonas A. Brewton of Switzer and two daughters, Mrs. W. G. Sexton and Miss Mamie Brewton both of this city. The remains will be carried to Switzer for interment and the funeral will occur from the Switzer Baptist Church tomorrow.

Mrs. N. V. Daniel

Another one of our venerable women of the county has passed away. Mrs. Nancy Vernon Daniel was born December 27th 1830 and quietly departed this life age February 3, 1895, the 3d year of her life. She was buried at the Nazareth cemetery where three generations of her ancestors sleep. She leaves one brother, Colonel Samuel Snoddy, of Welford, and one sister, Mrs. Polly Hoy, of Pontotoc, Miss. She also leaves six sons and one daughter, Mrs. David A. Brewton, of this county. Besides her own children she raised three nieces. Her life was a busy one and she exercised great energy and discretion in the management of her family and domestic affairs. She was a woman of decided opinions and always manifested an admirable independence of character. As wife, widow, mother and neighbor she so conducted herself in all the trying relations of life as to win the respect of all who knew her. Her children will cherish her memory and honor the name of her who did so much for their welfare and happiness.

GOINGS ABOUT TOWN

Mrs. N. V. Daniel

Another one of our venerable women of the county has passed away. Mrs. Nancy Vernon Daniel was born December 27th 1820 and quietly departed this life age February 9, 1895, the 73d year of her life. She was buried at the Nazareth cemetery where three generations of her ancestors sleep. She leaves one brother, Colonel Samuel Snoddy, of Wellford, and one sister, Mrs. Polly Hoy, of Pontotoc, Miss. She also leaves six sons and one daughter, Mrs. David a Brewton, of this county. Besides her own children she raised three nieces. Her life was a busy one and she exercised great energy and discretion in the management of her family and domestic affairs. She was a woman of decided opinions and always manifested an admirable independence of character. As wife, widow, mother and neighbor she so conducted herself in all the trying relations of life as to win the respect of all who knew her. Her children will cherish her memory and honor the name of her who did so much for their welfare and happiness.
