

Mary Perry Dunlap (Mrs. Wm. Joseph) Roddey belonged to these clubs in 1909:

Kaffee Klatch (they translated as "Coffee Gossip")
Over the Teacups
N.T.T.'s (Needles, Thread and Thimbles)

The Record, March 25, 1909:

"Mrs. W. J. Roddey was the charming hostess of the "Kaffee Klatch" on Wednesday afternoon. The usual routine of business was engaged in as follows and in the following order:

Talking, one-half hour.
Sewing, five minutes.
Talking, one-half hour.
Sewing, three minutes.
Talking and eating, one-half hour.
Talking, ad libitum and ad infinitum.
Adjournment.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Roddey and the dainty repast, served by Misses Katherine and Elizabeth Roddey, were: Mesdames W. M. Dunlap, J. R. Stokes, D. B. Johnson, J. H. Miller, J. W. Rawlinson, J. E. Roddey, J. C. Witherspoon, Rosa Strait, J. H. Milling, W. J. Cherry, R. B. Cunningham, W. B. Wilson, Jr., O. S. Poe, Ira B. Dunlap, W. C. Whitner, J. R. Miller, H. M. Dunlap, W. W. Fennell, Paul Workman, Miss Leila Russell.

(There were at least 20 clubs. Over the Teacups was a literary club.)

The Record, Feb 23, 1914:

Mrs. W. J. Roddey, hostess of Kaffee Klatch Club in her "elegant and palatial home" which has just recently been completed. Guests admired the "dainty and artistic rooms" and listened to "delightful music" on the Victrola. Daughters Catherine and Elizabeth Roddey helped their mother entertain. Guests were 11 KK members and 16 visitors.

Sept 1920-The Record: Mrs. W. J. Roddey returns to Rock Hill after several weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Jones....there for birth of Harry T. Jones, Jr.