Subject*	James Andrew WILLIAMS (6365)
Biography*	_____	His father was supposedly Frank Williams from North Carolina. He could be the F. Willams, age 19, in the 1860 household of Benjamin Franklin Williams #15172. According to Myrtle, he was a minister in Heath Springs, Lancaster County, South Carolina and Westville, Kershaw County, South Carolina. James was raised by Ann Faulkenbury Thorne from birth. She is mentioned in his obituary in the Camden Chronicle of 12 Aug 1927. She was called Aunt Ann by all of the the family members. According to his granddaughter, Azilee said her mother, Myrtle W. Clanton, told her that her grandmother, the first wife of Frank, (mother of James) died when James was born. He remarried and had other children. Myrtle remembers her grandfather and his second wife coming to visit them when she was a child. She said that she would play with the children.

Obituary*	___ ___ _____	Death of J. A. Williams James A. Williams, who for the past five years had been making his home in Rock Hill, died at his home in that city on Saturday last following an illness of about a year, and his remains were brought to Westville Sunday afternoon for burial in the cemetery at Bethany church of which he was a member for a number of years. Mr. Williams, who passed his sixty-fourth year June 12, was born and reared in Kershaw county near the town of Kershaw and resided in this vicinity until a few years ago. He was reared by Mrs. Ann Thorn, of the Hanging Rock community, now in her ninetieth year, who visited him recently at Rock Hill, and was able to attend his funeral also. She took charge of him when he was an orphan of tender years. The funeral services were conducted in Bethany Baptist church, the following ministers taking part in the services: Rev. W. J. Sprinkle, pastor of the Northside Baptist church, Rock Hill who accompanied the remains; Rev. A. E. Fulner, a former pastor of Mr. Williams; Rev. P. E. Blackmon pastor of Bethany church, and Rev. J. M. Neal, of Kershaw. The remains were laid to rest with the ceremonies of the Woodmen of the World, of which order Mr. Williams was a member, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, a number of whom accompanied the family from Rock Hill. Mr. Williams is survived by his widow, four sons, four daughters and an adopted daughter--Kershaw Era. (Camden Chronicle, Camden, S.C. Aug. 5, 1927).
